Red Moon Rising

Date

2015

Primary Maker

Dick, Vivienne

Medium

HD video, colour, stereo, 16:9

Description

A celebration of the carnivalesque, through dance, performance and the spoken word. The film reaches towards a renewal of our embodiment with the Earth as a response to a belief in invincibility, and the desire of Man to dominate the planets. A red moon is both a beacon, and a warning. Nominated for the Short Film Award at the BFI London Film Festival 2015
